The AKFCF is committed to protecting the privacy of users of its website (“Users”). This Privacy Policy, together with our Terms of Use and any other underlying agreements or terms, sets out the basis on which we will process any data we collect from you, or that you provide to us. This Privacy Policy also describes the manner in which we process, use, and disclose information that you provide to us. By using our website and/or providing us with information, you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

What We Need

The Association of Kentucky Fried Chicken Franchisees, Inc. (“AKFCF”) will be what’s known as the “Controller” of the personal data you provide to us. The personal data we collect includes your name, address, email, and phone number (collectively the “Personal Data”). You voluntarily consent to providing us with this information when you submit this information to us, in addition to clicking the “opt in” button. Your information will not be released, sold, or rented to any entities or individuals outside of our organization except as noted below.

Why We Need It

We need to know your personal data in order to provide you with notification services to ensure that you are kept up to date on meeting dates, regional information, the AKFCF Annual Convention, and to provide you with the best possible user experience. We will not collect any personal data from you that we do not need in order to provide and oversee these services.

Who We Share It With

Our Service Providers.

We may share your personal data with companies (including our affiliates) that perform services on our behalf. For example, we may share your personal data with TripBuilder Media in order to assist with the official mobile App of the AKFCF. By opting in, you consent to giving TripBuilder Media the right to process your personal data in order to deliver the functionality provided in the App and to send you emails only as necessary to carry out the App’s functions (e.g., emails to you to download the App sent via the TripBuilder Media Content Management System, messages or other content from TripBuilder Media, or related to the App or TripBuilder Media’s Content Management System).

Business Transfers.

Your personal data may be transferred to another entity (either an affiliated entity or an unrelated third party) in connection with a merger, reorganization, dissolution, or similar corporate event. If such a transfer were ever to occur, the acquiring entity’s use of your personal data will still be subject to this Privacy Policy.

Government and Legal Disclosures.

We may disclose the personal data we collect through this site, when we, in good faith, believe disclosure is appropriate to comply with the law (or a court order or subpoena); to prevent or investigate a possible crime, such as fraud or identity theft; or to enforce our Terms and Conditions or other agreements that govern your use of this site; or to protect your rights, property, or safety of our company, our users, or others.

How Long We Keep It

To ensure that your personal data is kept for no longer than necessary, we have put in place an archiving policy for each area in which personal data is processed and will review this process annually. The archiving policy considers what data should/must be retained, for how long, and why.
